Overview

Coming of Age Magazine is the only lifestyle and informational publication in Northwest Florida targeted to the much sought after senior population. However, it is not just for seniors. Our subscribers also include those involved in their lives—adult children, spouses, extended family members, caregivers and advocates for the elderly. Printed quarterly, Coming of Age includes the following departments along with feature articles:

Coming of Age Exclusive Celebrity Interviews

Caregiving • Health • Business • Travel • Out & About
Volunteer Spotlight • Hobbies • Council on Aging News

Our Readers Have Spoken!

According to our 2018 readers' survey, 99% of respondents rated Coming of Age magazine as excellent or good (59% and 40% respectively.) Also, 83% of respondents say they read the advertising in the magazine and more than one in three of those reported having purchased products from our advertisers.

Circulation

More than 30,000 readers in Escambia and Santa Rosa Counties turn to Coming of Age as a resource on issues facing seniors today. According to the Florida Department of Elder Affairs, 2018 statistics, there are over 92,000 citizens 60 or older in the two-county area. The elder population, and its purchasing power, is expected to rise faster than any other demographic group.

Mail Subscribers

Coming of Age magazine has 7,500 subscribers across northwest Florida who are members of the Council on Aging. An additional 3,000 copies are distributed at select senior-oriented events across the Panhandle.

Television Promotion

Coming of Age TV is the only local program produced for seniors and those involved in their lives. The content of the program reflects the content of Coming of Age magazine. The two Coming of Age products are cross-promoted to exponentially increase awareness of Coming of Age and bring "added value" to print advertisers.

Coming of Age TV airs on WUWF-TV, Cox Cable channel 4 on Monday, Wednesday & Fridays at 7 pm and Tuesdays & Thursdays at 9 am. Through Cox Communications, Coming of Age is available to approximately 80,000 households in Escambia County. Individual segments are also uploaded to our YouTube Channel, youtube.com/coawfla. The segments are archived as a resource library for those looking for information relevant to seniors and caregivers.
